With - out Eas - ter, hope is lost. — None could bear — sal - va - tion's cost.
With - out Eas - ter, grief won't end, — Bid - ding fare - well to a friend.
With - out Eas - ter, sin re - mains, — And as well — our scar - let stains.
So with Eas - ter, hope is born. — All shall rise — as on that morn,

None could pay the aw - ful price, — And no of - fering would suf - fice. —
All would sleep with - in the grave, — None would have the pow'r to save. —
All man - kind could not re - turn, — With the heat of shame would burn. —
All shall o - ver - come death's sting, — All shall praise Christ as their King. —

Ho - san - na sing! — For hope was found, When Christ a - rose, when Christ was crowned.
Ho - san - na sing! — For joy was found, When Christ a - rose, when Christ was crowned.
Ho - san - na sing! — For grace was found, When Christ a - rose, when Christ was crowned.
Ho - san - na sing! — For He is found, For Christ a - rose, and Christ was crowned.
